BlueCare Management are not listening to Admin Staff

You have told BlueCare management very clearly through your ASU Delegates and Officials at the bargaining table that you are not happy with their wage offer (at it's best is 1.5% and its worst 0.75%) and that you say 'No' to their plan to reduce your conditions, such as withdrawing payout of your sick leave bank on termination.

BlueCare management want you to pay for your superannuation guarantee contribution out of your pocket and now they say they want to think about when they can provide you with back pay.

Do you think you are worth more?

Its time to say in a very loud and clear voice their offer is just not good enough!

To make sure your voice is heard join your voice to your ASU co-workers take these 3 easy steps:
