Planning & Financial Services Change Process Update

After receiving many calls and emails from members concerned with the above change process, ASU Acting Branch Secretary, Irene Monro, Jan Sheppard and Valda Graham met with Ken Greedy and Gina Campbell of Griffith University.

We can confirm the following:

- Office Of Planning & Financial Services Naming & Structural Change Proposal is exactly that - it is a proposal and it is open for consultation and NO Final decision has been made.

You can influence the decision

- No one has been made redundant at this time. Some people were spoken to in advance and told that their position had been identified in the paper as a possible position that may be considered surplus to requirements if the restructure as proposed in the consultation paper was to proceed.
- We requested an extension of time for members to comment on the proposal and the University has agreed to extended the period of consultation from 2 to 3 weeks.
- Recruitment advertisement for HEW 6 and lower have been put on hold until after a decision has been made on this proposal

So where to from here?

Members have a copy of the Proposal and they need to review it and give comments back to your union delegates.

We will be organising a meeting for members to give feedback directly to your union. You can influence this decision as long as we work together. If you know of someone who is not with you in our union now is the time to ask them to join with you to help make a difference.

Keep your eye out for a meeting notice for your site.
