Virgin Says GCC Part Time Employees Don't Need To Be Paid Overtime

In a controversial step nearing the end of your collective agreement negotiations, Virgin management have added a clause to the draft agreement which says:

Any leave taken will not be considered hours worked for the purposes of determining an entitlement to overtime.

So if you have had a day's leave, either annual or sick in a week and you get called in to do 4 hours overtime on a day off, this clause would mean you would not get paid overtime.

Do you think this is fair?

We don't!

Email and tell us what you think about this grab for your entitlements. Email your thoughts to: info@qld.asu.asn.au

Do it today!
