Fair wages and conditions at Conveyancing Works

For the last 6 months, the ASU has been negotiating with Slater & Gordon Management for a new Enterprise Agreement. It is Slater & Gordon's intention that the new Enterprise Agreement will cover Conveyancing Works staff. This is the first time Conveyancing Works and S&G staff will be employed on the same employment conditions.

These Enterprise Agreement negotiations are an opportunity to improve conditions at Conveyancing Works. However, we can't do it without your support. The best way to improve wages and conditions at Conveyancing Works is to join the Union.

A fair wage at Conveyancing Works

Conveyancing Paralegals in Queensland start on a base wage of $47,000. Equivalent positions in other states earn a much higher base wage.

Senior Legal Assistant's undertaking Conveyancing in WA, VIC and NSW earn a base wage of over $55,000.

A Law Clerk undertaking Conveyancing work in WA, VIC and NSW would earn a base wage of over $63,000.

The ASU National Negotiating Team has been arguing for higher base wages at Conveyancing Works. It is unfair to have people undertaking the same work, in the same company, in different states on different rates.

A fair bonus system at Conveyancing Works

The ASU has met with Conveyancing Works management to discuss the structure of the Short Term Incentive (STI) scheme. We are concerned that paralegals STI is reduced if mistakes are made on the file. Are you concerned about this issue? Please contact your local ASU organiser if you would like this problem addressed.

Job security in New Client Services

Some members have expressed concern that Slater & Gordon's New Client Services team is being trained to do work currently undertaken by the Conveyancing Works' Client Services team. They have contacted the Union and expressed concerned about their job security. The ASU is currently investigating this issue. Please contact your local ASU organiser if you are concerned about this issue.
